

Hervé Laitat

Chief Strategy Officer

Biography | April 2020

Hervé Laitat was born in Belgium. He holds a business engineer degree from Solvay Business School in Brussels. He started his career as an investment manager in a Brussels based incubator, Silicon Forest, investing in internet related businesses. Shortly after, in 2002, he joined Abelag as deputy CEO, became Accountable Manager of the operator in 2005 and CEO in 2013. Along with Abelag, his passion for the sector brought him to defend and promote interests of business aviation through EBAA (European Business Aviation Association), acting as Board Member and Treasurer of Association.

In addition to his current role of CEO at Abelag, Hervé Laitat was appointed Chief Integration Officer of Luxaviation Group in May 2015, with the task of supervising the integration effort within the Group.
