

Robert Fisch

President Aviation Services

Biography | April 2020

Robert Fisch was born in Luxembourg. He studied law in Strasbourg and holds an Airline Transport Pilot License with instructor and examiner ratings. Robert's business aviation experience started in 1998 when he was flying Learjets but also managing new projects for an US based operator. After six years spent abroad he helped two Austrian business jet operators in their expansion to become major European players. Robert joined Luxaviation in 2011. In January 2014, he was nominated managing director and accountable manager at Luxaviation Luxembourg. He speaks 6 languages and holds a world speed record. He resides in Luxembourg.